Sierra Booster
PO Box 8
Loyalton, CA 96118
530-993-4379
jbuck@psln.com

Calendar of Events

April 26, 2024

CANADIAN PIANO DUETS
06:00 PM - 08:00 PM PST
DUO FORTIN POIRIER (PIANO FOUR HANDS) a top Canadian piano duets, April 26, 6 p.m. at Milton Gottardi Museum, Loyalton. Hosted by Musica Sierra

May 1, 2024

CHEAP THRILLS BINGOÂ
07:00 PM - 07:30 PM PST
CHEAP THRILLS BINGO MAYDAY/CINCO dE MAYO May 1st. at the senior center, 7 p.m. Snacks and beverages $1 donation. Sponsor: Sierra Valley Chamber

May 4, 2024

SIERRA TIMBERFEST 2024
09:00 AM - 05:00 PM PST
SIERRA TIMBERFEST May 4, 2024. Downtown Loyalton. Competitors required to be American Lumberjack Assoc. members. Celebrate the rich history of the timber industry in the High Sierra Mountain Valley!

May 11, 2024

INDIAN TACO DINNER
05:30 PM - 08:00 PM PST
May 11th - 5:30 - 8 p.m. at Sierra Valley Grange Hall. Event is sponsored by Sierra Valley Fire Auxiliary

May 15, 2024

SPRING MIXER
06:00 PM - 08:00 PM PST
Members and non-members are encouraged to attend. Potluck BYOB
Hosted by The Buttes Resort, 230 Main Street, Sierra City (530) 862-1170

May 25, 2024

UNVEILING OF THE OLD SCHOOLHOUSE AT LOYALTON PARK
12:00 PM - 03:00 PM PST
UNVEILING OF THE OLD SCHOOLHOUSE Memorial week end, May 25th at Loyalton Park with Musica Sierra and of 8-panel stained glass windows by Marjorie Voorhees.
Washoe-based Red Hoop Singers perform.
Don't miss this great event. BRING YOUR OWN CHAIR.
NOTE: TIMES MAY CHANGE

August 3, 2024

BARN DANCE & BBQÂ
05:00 PM - 09:00 PM PST
BARN DANCE & BBQ August 3, 5 p.m. at Diamond S Ranch, music by BUCK FORD. Plumas Sierra Cattlewomen Scholarship Fundraiser, $50 per person. Call (510) 219-1082.

Come for the trails, stay for the party!

Join us this fall for a NEW outdoor festival celebrating trails and community, and benefiting the work of the Sierra Buttes Trail Stewardship!

Mountains to Meadows Trailfest is a four-day festival held September 19-22 at the Plumas-Sierra County Fairgrounds in Quincy. On tap is a full slate of activities, including two days of optional trailwork with the SBTS Pro Trail Crew on Mount Hough, a Poker Run/Ride, locally led hikes, trail runs and mountain bike and moto rides on some of the best trails in Plumas County, family and late-night rollerskating sessions, food trucks, a beverage garden and an energetic line-up of live bands on the main stage, headlined by The Scott Pemberton Band, Boot Juice and the Gold Souls.

Festival passes range in price from $50 per person for trailwork volunteers, to $149 for all-access weekend passes and $699 at the top end for a limited number of VIP passes. Kids under 17 are free, and passes include tent camping for the weekend.

Find all the details on the event at QuincyMountainsToMeadows.com. For sponsorship opportunities, reach out to marty@sierratrails.org.

September 20, 2024

Sierra Buttes Trail Stewardship Launches Mountains to Meadows Trailfest September 19-22, 2
08:00 AM - 04:00 PM PST

Come for the trails, stay for the party!

Join us this fall for a NEW outdoor festival celebrating trails and community, and benefiting the work of the Sierra Buttes Trail Stewardship!

Mountains to Meadows Trailfest is a four-day festival held September 19-22 at the Plumas-Sierra County Fairgrounds in Quincy. On tap is a full slate of activities, including two days of optional trailwork with the SBTS Pro Trail Crew on Mount Hough, a Poker Run/Ride, locally led hikes, trail runs and mountain bike and moto rides on some of the best trails in Plumas County, family and late-night rollerskating sessions, food trucks, a beverage garden and an energetic line-up of live bands on the main stage, headlined by The Scott Pemberton Band, Boot Juice and the Gold Souls.

Festival passes range in price from $50 per person for trailwork volunteers, to $149 for all-access weekend passes and $699 at the top end for a limited number of VIP passes. Kids under 17 are free, and passes include tent camping for the weekend.

Find all the details on the event at QuincyMountainsToMeadows.com. For sponsorship opportunities, reach out to marty@sierratrails.org.

September 21, 2024

Sierra Buttes Trail Stewardship Launches Mountains to Meadows Trailfest September 19-22, 2
08:00 AM - 04:00 PM PST

Come for the trails, stay for the party!

Join us this fall for a NEW outdoor festival celebrating trails and community, and benefiting the work of the Sierra Buttes Trail Stewardship!

Mountains to Meadows Trailfest is a four-day festival held September 19-22 at the Plumas-Sierra County Fairgrounds in Quincy. On tap is a full slate of activities, including two days of optional trailwork with the SBTS Pro Trail Crew on Mount Hough, a Poker Run/Ride, locally led hikes, trail runs and mountain bike and moto rides on some of the best trails in Plumas County, family and late-night rollerskating sessions, food trucks, a beverage garden and an energetic line-up of live bands on the main stage, headlined by The Scott Pemberton Band, Boot Juice and the Gold Souls.

Festival passes range in price from $50 per person for trailwork volunteers, to $149 for all-access weekend passes and $699 at the top end for a limited number of VIP passes. Kids under 17 are free, and passes include tent camping for the weekend.

Find all the details on the event at QuincyMountainsToMeadows.com. For sponsorship opportunities, reach out to marty@sierratrails.org.

September 22, 2024

Sierra Buttes Trail Stewardship Launches Mountains to Meadows Trailfest September 19-22, 2
08:00 AM - 04:00 PM PST

Come for the trails, stay for the party!

Join us this fall for a NEW outdoor festival celebrating trails and community, and benefiting the work of the Sierra Buttes Trail Stewardship!

Mountains to Meadows Trailfest is a four-day festival held September 19-22 at the Plumas-Sierra County Fairgrounds in Quincy. On tap is a full slate of activities, including two days of optional trailwork with the SBTS Pro Trail Crew on Mount Hough, a Poker Run/Ride, locally led hikes, trail runs and mountain bike and moto rides on some of the best trails in Plumas County, family and late-night rollerskating sessions, food trucks, a beverage garden and an energetic line-up of live bands on the main stage, headlined by The Scott Pemberton Band, Boot Juice and the Gold Souls.

Festival passes range in price from $50 per person for trailwork volunteers, to $149 for all-access weekend passes and $699 at the top end for a limited number of VIP passes. Kids under 17 are free, and passes include tent camping for the weekend.

Find all the details on the event at QuincyMountainsToMeadows.com. For sponsorship opportunities, reach out to marty@sierratrails.org.