Idaho CMMC Alliance 2025 is happening!

CMMC is here — are you compliant and ready for an assessment?

Shadowscape is proud to once again partner with Mission43, Idaho Apex Accelerator, Idaho Technology Council, and TechHelp - Idaho Manufacturing Specialists for the 2025 Idaho CMMC Alliance event.

We are also pleased to present Eide Bailly LLP as our featured presentation sponsor, helping us put together a phenomenal agenda this year.

Join us for an exclusive keynote with James Prince, one of the first DoD contractors to achieve Level 2 CMMC certification. Hear his real-world journey from being assigned the compliance effort to successfully passing — and watch it come to life through a live role-play session with Anders Erickson of Eide Bailly (one of just 75 authorized C3PAOs) and Mark DeBry, a seasoned Lead CCA who has worked on 25 CMMC Level 2 assessments. Gain rare insight into what assessors look for, how to prepare, and how real companies are getting across the finish line.

? Thursday, September 4th

? 8:30 AM – 3:00 PM MST

? The Idaho Outdoor Fieldhouse (3179 E Barber Valley Dr, Boise, ID)

? Livestream available for remote attendees

With CMMC assessments underway and enforcement pressure mounting from prime contractors and the Department of Defense, the time to act is now. Whether you're a subcontractor, MSP, or prime, understanding the updated landscape is critical to staying eligible for future contracts.

This event is designed to equip members of the Defense Industrial Base (DIB) and Managed Service Providers with the insights needed to successfully navigate CMMC assessments and turn compliance into a strategic advantage.

What to expect:

?? Live presentations from experienced CMMC professionals

?? Guidance from DoD contractors who've already gone through the process

?? First-hand insights from Lead CCAs (Certified CMMC Assessor)

?? Complimentary continental breakfast, lunch and drinks

?? Networking with peers, support organizations, and compliance experts

Secure your spot now and take the next step toward CMMC readiness.

Basecamp Tech Fest - September 4-5, 2025

The First Tech Conference Designed for Everyday Americans

Basecamp Tech Fest is revolutionizing the tech conference model by creating meaningful dialogue between technology builders and the people who live with their innovations. This two-day festival brings together founders, educators, business owners, students, and community leaders alongside developers, entrepreneurs, and tech professionals for "cross-pollination conversations" that drive better innovation.

What Makes It Unique:

OpenAI exclusive workshops accessible to non-technical attendees

NASA robot demonstrations from BSU's engineering team

ASL interpretation and accessibility leadership

Career fair connecting local talent with Idaho's growing tech sector

Programming camps spanning Tech, Business, Creativity, and the Northstar Hackathon

Why Boise, Why Now: Positioned in the #2 fastest-growing tech hub in America, Basecamp demonstrates how innovation can stay connected to community values while fostering genuine technological advancement.

Partnership Opportunity: The festival features dedicated workforce development programming and career fair opportunities, perfectly aligned with Idaho Tech Council's mission to grow Idaho's technology ecosystem and connect local talent with expanding opportunities.

Reality Capture Network proudly announces R-CON 2025, a leading conference of its kind focused on the transformative power of digital technology in the built environment and beyond. Held at the Morrison Center for the Performing Arts in Boise, Idaho, this three-day event will spotlight the real-world application of reality capture, 3D visualization, digital twins, AI, robotics, and more.

R-CON 2025 Conference Highlights:

One-Stage Format - All keynotes, panels, and talks take place on a single stage to ensure every attendee experiences the same powerful insights and strategies - no competing tracks or missed moments.

High-Impact Speakers - Hear directly from thought leaders at organizations like AECOM, General Motors, ExxonMobil, and NASA Kennedy Space Center - with more to be announced.

Elite Networking - Designed for connection. Meet and engage with industry leaders, tech innovators, and peers from diverse sectors including AEC, public safety, government, energy, and healthcare.

Cross-Industry Collaboration - Built to unite professionals using spatial data and digital workflows across traditionally siloed industries.

Technology Showcases - See the latest tools and platforms in action — from scanning and simulation to geospatial analytics and robotics.

"This event is designed for connection. From construction sites to command centers, R-CON brings together the people shaping how we capture, manage, and use spatial data. If you're using this tech, or should be, this is your event."
— Matthew Byrd, CEO & Founder, Reality Capture Network
