

Calendar of Events

---

- April 26, 2024      CANADIAN PIANO DUETS
06:00 PM - 08:00 PM PST
DUO FORTIN POIRIER (PIANO FOUR HANDS) a top Canadian piano duets, April 26, 6 p.m. at Milton Gottardi Museum, Loyalton. Hosted by Musica Sierra
- May 1, 2024      CHEAP THRILLS BINGOÂ
07:00 PM - 07:30 PM PST
CHEAP THRILLS BINGO MAYDAY/CINCO dE MAYO May 1st. at the senior center, 7 p.m. Snacks and beverages $1 donation. Sponsor: Sierra Valley Chamber
- May 4, 2024      SIERRA TIMBERFEST 2024
09:00 AM - 05:00 PM PST
SIERRA TIMBERFEST May 4, 2024. Downtown Loyalton. Competitors required to be American Lumberjack Assoc. members. Celebrate the rich history of the timber industry in the High Sierra Mountain Valley!
- May 11, 2024      INDIAN TACO DINNER
05:30 PM - 08:00 PM PST
May 11th - 5:30 - 8 p.m. at Sierra Valley Grange Hall. Event is sponsored by Sierra Valley Fire Auxiliary
- May 15, 2024      SPRING MIXER
06:00 PM - 08:00 PM PST
*Members and non-members are encouraged to attend. Potluck BYOB
Hosted by The Buttes Resort, 230 Main Street, Sierra City (530) 862-1170*
- May 25, 2024      UNVEILING OF THE OLD SCHOOLHOUSE AT LOYALTON PARK
12:00 PM - 03:00 PM PST
*UNVEILING OF THE OLD SCHOOLHOUSE Memorial week end, May 25th at Loyalton Park with Musica Sierra and of 8-panel stained glass windows by Marjorie Voorhees. Washoe-based Red Hoop Singers perform.
Don't miss this great event. BRING YOUR OWN CHAIR.
NOTE: TIMES MAY CHANGE*
- August 3, 2024      BARN DANCE & BBQÂ
05:00 PM - 09:00 PM PST
*BARN DANCE & BBQ August 3, 5 p.m. at Diamond S Ranch, music by BUCK FORD.
Plumas Sierra Cattlewomen Scholarship Fundraiser, $50 per person. Call (510) 219-1082.*

September 19, 2024

Sierra Buttes Trail Stewardship Launches Mountains to Meadows Trailfest September 19-22, 2024
08:00 AM - 04:00 PM PST

Come for the trails, stay for the party!

Join us this fall for a NEW outdoor festival celebrating trails and community, and benefiting the work of the Sierra Buttes Trail Stewardship!

Mountains to Meadows Trailfest is a four-day festival held September 19-22 at the Plumas-Sierra County Fairgrounds in Quincy. On tap is a full slate of activities, including two days of optional trailwork with the SBTS Pro Trail Crew on Mount Hough, a Poker Run/Ride, locally led hikes, trail runs and mountain bike and moto rides on some of the best trails in Plumas County, family and late-night rollerskating sessions, food trucks, a beverage garden and an energetic line-up of live bands on the main stage, headlined by The Scott Pemberton Band, Boot Juice and the Gold Souls.

Festival passes range in price from $50 per person for trailwork volunteers, to $149 for all-access weekend passes and $699 at the top end for a limited number of VIP passes. Kids under 17 are free, and passes include tent camping for the weekend.

Find all the details on the event at QuincyMountainsToMeadows.com. For sponsorship opportunities, reach out to marty@sierratrails.org.

Come for the trails, stay for the party!

Join us this fall for a NEW outdoor festival celebrating trails and community, and benefiting the work of the Sierra Buttes Trail Stewardship!

Mountains to Meadows Trailfest is a four-day festival held September 19-22 at the Plumas-Sierra County Fairgrounds in Quincy. On tap is a full slate of activities, including two days of optional trailwork with the SBTS Pro Trail Crew on Mount Hough, a Poker Run/Ride, locally led hikes, trail runs and mountain bike and moto rides on some of the best trails in Plumas County, family and late-night rollerskating sessions, food trucks, a beverage garden and an energetic line-up of live bands on the main stage, headlined by The Scott Pemberton Band, Boot Juice and the Gold Souls.

Festival passes range in price from $50 per person for trailwork volunteers, to $149 for all-access weekend passes and $699 at the top end for a limited number of VIP passes. Kids under 17 are free, and passes include tent camping for the weekend.

Find all the details on the event at QuincyMountainsToMeadows.com. For sponsorship opportunities, reach out to marty@sierratrails.org.

Come for the trails, stay for the party!

Join us this fall for a NEW outdoor festival celebrating trails and community, and benefiting the work of the Sierra Buttes Trail Stewardship!

Mountains to Meadows Trailfest is a four-day festival held September 19-22 at the Plumas-Sierra County Fairgrounds in Quincy. On tap is a full slate of activities, including two days of optional trailwork with the SBTS Pro Trail Crew on Mount Hough, a Poker Run/Ride, locally led hikes, trail runs and mountain bike and moto rides on some of the best trails in Plumas County, family and late-night rollerskating sessions, food trucks, a beverage garden and an energetic line-up of live bands on the main stage, headlined by The Scott Pemberton Band, Boot Juice and the Gold Souls.

Festival passes range in price from $50 per person for trailwork volunteers, to $149 for all-access weekend passes and $699 at the top end for a limited number of VIP passes. Kids under 17 are free, and passes include tent camping for the weekend.

Find all the details on the event at QuincyMountainsToMeadows.com. For sponsorship opportunities, reach out to marty@sierratrails.org.

Come for the trails, stay for the party!

Join us this fall for a NEW outdoor festival celebrating trails and community, and benefiting the work of the Sierra Buttes Trail Stewardship!

Mountains to Meadows Trailfest is a four-day festival held September 19-22 at the Plumas-Sierra County Fairgrounds in Quincy. On tap is a full slate of activities, including two days of optional trailwork with the SBTS Pro Trail Crew on Mount Hough, a Poker Run/Ride, locally led hikes, trail runs and mountain bike and moto rides on some of the best trails in Plumas County, family and late-night rollerskating sessions, food trucks, a beverage garden and an energetic line-up of live bands on the main stage, headlined by The Scott Pemberton Band, Boot Juice and the Gold Souls.

Festival passes range in price from $50 per person for trailwork volunteers, to $149 for all-access weekend passes and $699 at the top end for a limited number of VIP passes. Kids under 17 are free, and passes include tent camping for the weekend.

Find all the details on the event at QuincyMountainsToMeadows.com. For sponsorship opportunities, reach out to marty@sierratrails.org.